

Hip-Hop Rap MC's DJ's Grips and PAs Wanted

Written by Robert ID2183

Sunday, 11 December 2005 04:25 -

Middle Tennessee independent do-it-yourself hip-hop record label with connections to rap artists Bubba Spraxx and Haystak and behind award winning first installment of four-part documentary series White Boys Cant' Rap (Independent Day), is seeking high-profile MCs/rappers and DJs/turntablists from Northeastern Illinois and Southeast Wisconsin to Northwest Indiana for cameo appearances for music video shooting Jan. 14-15 in far northern reaches of Greater Chicagoland.

Producer/director will also be in the area for the Thank God For Hip-Hop Film Festival & Action Conference at Kennedy-King College, Chicago January 11th – 15th. Best edited copy of film and cast credits actually on video very available in lieu of monetary compensation for appearing in this enterprising but ultra micro-budget project.

If you don't have the widespread standing of a Juice, Ang 13, Rhymest, Titan, DA Smart, Teefa, Lupe Fiasco, Bump J or Heather Robinson, forward resumes, headshots, and music demos to MARKARMYSTRONG62@aol.com or Powell Management ,c/o Rick Powell, 844 N. Glenview, Ave., Milwaukee, WI 53213. Or phone 414.375.5575.