The LA Times is reporting that the son of "The Godfather of Gangsta Rap" Eric ‘Eazy-E’ Wright’s son, the hip-hop ‘Prince of Compton’, Lil Eazy E ; was arrested Saturday night. Reports are that Lil Eazy E was arrested on the streets of his famous hip-hop culture town of Compton after a traffic stop.

Lil Eazy E was driving a car which was stopped by Los Angeles County Sheriff's deputies for a traffic violation. During that stop the Los Angeles County Sheriff's deputies found the hip-hop gangsta rap artist to be in possession of a gun and the rap artist was arrested.

Also arrested by Los Angeles County Sheriff's deputies during the stop were two passengers who were in the car with hip-hop’s ‘Prince of Compton. One was charged with possession of a firearm and the other for a probation violation.

Recently, rumors of the hip-hop Compton native working on a deal to sign with hip-hop rap artist 50 Cents hip-hop click G-Unit were put to rest by those in the rap artists camp and also by Virgin Records rep’s.