8Ball & MJG will be shooting a third video from their album "Living Legends" in Atlanta on Monday, November 22. The video is for the new single "Forever" featuring Lloyd and will be directed by R. Malcolm Jones. The video will include appearances by BET Comic View's Bruce Bruce and Ricky Smiley along with Bad Boy CEO P. Diddy.

Hip-hop icons 8 Ball & MJG's album "Living Legends" has been certified gold and is approaching platinum status on Bad Boy Records. Hit singles "You Don't Want Drama" and "Straight Cadillac Pimpin" appealed to both newfound followers and the duo's die-hard fans.

In addition to promoting "Living Legends", 8 Ball is working on the second 'slab' compilation and his third solo album, all of which will be released on 8 Ball's 8 Ways Entertainment. MJG is finishing recording his second solo album, which will be released on his own MJG Music.
