Dallas Hip-Hop rap artist Big Tuck grew up on the mean streets of South Dallas Texas. This summer he is bringing 'Tha Absolute Truth' showcasing his talent that Texas has been aware of for sometime.

Rapper Big Tuck is one of the six members of the hip-hop / rap group D.S.R. The Dirty South Rydaz. DSR has sold over 350,000 CD's all independently, without a major deal.

Rap artist Big Tuck dropped a mix tape called Sgt. Tuck that sold 10,000 copies. Two months before that he dropped 'The Purple Hulk' that, sold over 100k and was nominated as indie album of the year at the Southern Eastern Awards.

His upcoming album, on Universal Records, 'Tha Absolute Truth' comes out this summer and will feature hip-hop and rap artists Slim Thug, Chamillionaire, Paul Wall, Bun B, Tum-Tum, Fat Bastard and the entire T-Town Music Family.

T-Town Music formed the group D.S.R. by compiling together the best rappers from the Dallas area. George Lopez played a crucial part in breaking legendary label Swishahouse outside of Houston.

Their first successful mixtape was called 'North 2 Tha South' which featured artists such as Lil Flip, Slim Thug, Paul Wall, OG Ron C, Pimp C, and many more Texas underground hip-hop and rap superstars.

The hip-hop group D.S.R. has put together over 32 mixtapes that have sold more 350,000 copies independently
