There's no question about which GOP candidate rapper Snoop Dogg is down with.

On his Facebook page Sunday night, Snoop posted this photo with the caption "because i said so":
Smoke Weed Everyday"

It doesn't come as a surprise that the rapper is showing love for the Texas Congressman. Paul has been vocal about his stance on marijuana legalization (he says states should regulate the herb, not the federal government) and Snoop Dogg certainly isn't shy about his love for weed.

Maybe "The Next Episode" can be Paul's new campaign song?
