

Hip-Hop's Master P aka Ghetto Bill

Written by Robert ID1429

Monday, 23 May 2005 22:49 -

Louisiana hip-hop mogul, rap artist Master P's 11th solo CD "Ghetto Bill (The Best Hustler In the Game) Vol. 1" is set for release on June 21st and features the hot new single "I Need Dubs."

"I Need Dubs" is one of the hottest new tracks at urban radio right now with 26 new adds this week and growing with over 550 spins and 5 million in audience. The single is blowing up in the southern markets and is spreading to North and West like wildfire!

The name Ghetto Bill aka the Ghetto "Bill Gates," has been hip-hop's Master P's nickname on the street for some time now and represents the way Percy Miller handles business both in the streets and in the boardroom.

Like Bill Gates, Percy Miller is always looking for new directions to move in. With this new CD, Master P gives fans a taste of where The New No Limit is heading in years to come with features from teenage songstress, Ashleey, the first R&B singer signed to the label and collaborations with hot established acts like G-Unit's Young Buck, who appears on the hot new club track "Yappin'." Also present are appearances from younger brother fellow rap artist Silkk The Shocker, TRU's Halleluyah, Slim Thug, and newcomer Pop.

Production on the disc is handled by the versatile New No Limit in-house production man Myke Diesel (Master P, Romeo, Silkk The Shocker, TRU, Solange) and by Drumma Boy (Gangsta Boo, TRU).

"Ghetto Bill (The Best Hustler In The Game) Vol. 1" Master P's Latest CD, Is Set for Release on June 21, 2005.

Hip-Hop's Master P aka Ghetto Bill

Written by Robert ID1429

Monday, 23 May 2005 22:49 -
