The Atlanta HipHop Film Festival has also announced the 2006 screenings of films, taking place April 27-30, 2006, in Atlanta, GA. The festival will screen 2 feature films, 28 premieres (including 9 world premieres and 2 U.S. premieres), 4 shorts, and 3 music videos. For this year's festival 78 films were submitted for consideration. This included 17 feature films, 24 documentaries, 13 shorts, 12 international feature films, and 12 music videos.

The festival opens on April 27, 2006 in Atlanta at the Auburn Research Library with the premiere of "K.O.S.- Determination," written and directed by Jamaal Footman. "K.O.S. – Determination" is a story about two people, isolated by their knowledge of the world, who find each other through their mutual interest of literature.

Closing night, the "Starz InBlack® Original, 'Dead Prez: It's Bigger Than Hip-Hop'" will make its world premiere on April 28, 2006 at the Carter Center. Dead Prez, one of the nation's preeminent underground hip-hop groups, performs in the band's first filmed concert special. "Dead Prez : "It's Bigger than Hip-Hop" spotlights the people on the frontlines of a movement to reclaim hip hop culture from its bling infatuation. This one-hour original feature includes a
