West coast hip hop and rap notable, Celly Cel, presents his hot new group "Hillside Stranglaz".

The long awaited album is called Hillside Stranglaz "Bad Influence" and is in stores now.

Since first appearing on Celly Cel's 'Live from the Ghetto' compilation in 2001, the "Hillside Stranglaz" have left the hip hop community wanting more.

The members of the "Hillside Stranglaz" are San Francisco Bay area native, hip-hop and rap legend Celly Cel, Celly's brother Mac Reese, D Enemy, and Protajay. All are from the notorious Hillside of Vallejo.

Mixing Bay Area hip hop hyphy and 'block' music has made the Hillside Stranglaz one of the most talked about groups among the hip hop underground.

The new single from the Hillside Stranglaz is called "Parkin Lot Pimpin". It contains a sample of the Old School classic "No Parkin on the Dance Floor".

Check out "Parkin Lot Pimpin" from the Hillside Stranglaz on the Hillside Stranglaz Myspace page.

"Parkin Lot Pimpin" is also in rotation on www.TLARadio.com and many radio stations across the nation. If it is not on your local station REQUEST IT.

Visit the Hillside Stranglaz and Celly Cel on the sites below, and leave them some luv and feedback.

www.myspace.com/hillsidestranglaz

www.myspace.com/cellycel

You can also download the single "Parkin Lot Pimpin" HERE .