Over the years many pieces of hip hop history has hit the auction site Ebay. Iconic hip hop figure Tupac Shakur (2Pac) has had many items related to him sold on Ebay. In the past there has been his Hummer, and numerous other memorabilia having association to the legendary hip hop rap artist.

For sale now on Ebay is the Jaguar once owned by Tupac Shakur (2Pac).

The 1995, 6cylinder Jaguar XJS is the same auto 2Pac drove in his hip hop video 'To Live and Die in L.A.'.

The car has barely been driven since Tupac himself drove it. The original paper work comes with the auto and that has Tupac's name and signature on them. (So you even get an autograph of the hip hop icon in the deal)

You can see 2Pac's Jag and bid on it at <http://cgi.ebay.com/ebaymotors/ws/eBayISAPI.dll?ViewItem&item=280247305248&ssPageName=ADME:L:LCA:MT:31>

Starting Bid is 40,000 dollars (American). Here is a chance to purchase a piece of true hip hop history. Hurry, auction ends in 7 days.
