Yafeu "Kadafi" Fula

Today 8 years ago Yafeu "Kadafi" Fula was murdered. Probably one of the best of Tupac's rap group "Tha Outlawz". His short 19 year life here has left a legacy , and again we ask "What If.?"

Kadafi was Tupac's half brother. Because Kadafi was on the passenger side of the car directly behind the car Suge Knight and Tupac were driving, reports say Kadafi said that he could point out the gunman to police, but that never happened. A few months later, Kadafi was found Dead, execution style in a apartment building in New Jersey. In the October 2000 issue of The Source magazine, the Outlawz say he was "accidently" killed by Outlawz member Napoleon's cousin.
