

'Live from the Booth' Hip Hop

Written by Keith ID2998

Wednesday, 06 September 2006 23:08 -

A massive, near-forty track compilation made up solely of current and exclusive freestyles from Hip-Hop's established A-List and up-and-coming hip hop and rap artists on "Live from the Booth". The "Live from the Booth" mixtape is available in stores now.

The "Live from the Booth" mixtape contains multiple freestyle tracks from each of the most recognized artists in the hip hop and rap game.

Hip hop artists 50 Cent and Lloyd Banks, of G-Unit, both make double appearances on the project, including 50's recently popular "Ghetto Superstar (Entourage)" freestyle, a rendition of Omarion's single "Entourage". The mixtape features double freestyles from Jadakiss, including his appropriately titled freestyle track, "Summer's Over".

Hip Hop artists Fabolous, Memphis Bleek, and Cassidy all make double appearances each with exclusive freestyles, as well as a triple appearance from 50 foe rap artist The Game.

"Live from the Booth" features a Tapemasters Inc. exclusive freestyle from Lupe Fiasco, available only on the mixtape. Juelz Santana and Lil' Wayne share two collaboration freestyles on "Live from the Booth", and Hip-Hop legend Jay-Z brings the production to close with the final track, "44 Four's".

"Live from the Booth" also features freestyles by AC, Clipse, Styles P, Papoose, Freeway, and several of the Hip-Hop game's up-and-comers.

The CD is in stores now.