As a lot of the unsigned rap and hip-hop artists know, being 'unsigned' to a major can be a draw back in getting yourself and your music out there among the masses. Some artists even give up or lay back when the 'majors' overlook them.

In the streets of Washington Heights in Manhattan there is an 'unsigned' artist who does just the opposite. Minus P is one artist who stays on the grind knowing that his fans appreciate his dedication and his performance.

He has done it all to get his craft out to the people. From making his own beats early on to creating and producing mix tapes and even to his latest sold out album "WELCOME TO THE HEIGHTS", Minus P is a hip-hop artist in motion.

Minus P is an example of what an artist can do with determination and the will to stay on the grind. With the confidence of believing in himself and always reaching out to his fan base through his very active show schedule, Minus P is sure to make his mark in the music industry: signed or unsigned.

His music is getting air play from WPSC 88.7 FM "The Last Hip-Hop Radio Show", WDBK 91.5 FM DJ Danny J "The Mixshow Project" to WBLS 107.5 FM "The Wendy William's Show" and all points in between.

Last week Mike Asadourian CEO of Safari Clothing announced that he and Minus P along with W.H. Entertainment signed a deal for a 6 month period in which the rap artist Minus P will be the spokes-person for the Safari Clothing line.
