The newest video honoring the memory of the late hip-hop culture legend, rap artist Tupac Shakur (2Pac), 'When Ure Hero Falls', is now available to view on the only official web site of the fallen rap artist Tupac Shakur (2Pac) at 2PacLegacy.com.

'When Ure Hero Falls' features rare, unreleased out takes of Tupac himself, is the latest in a series of commemorative events celebrating the life and legacy of the slain rapper, who died almost 10 years ago.

"When Ure Hero Falls" is the first single from The Rose, Vol. 2 – Music Inspired by Tupac's Poetry.

The song, which was taken from Tupac's contemporary poetry collection, The Rose that Grew from Concrete, is performed by the Impact Kids, a group comprised of students from the Tupac Amaru Shakur Center for the Arts (TASCA), a full-service performing arts complex started by the late rap artists mother, Afeni Shakur, to carry on and build the legacy of her late son, in Stone Mountain, Georgia.

"When Ure Hero Falls" was directed by Gobi, and features performance footage from the Impact Kids, as well as a wall engraved with a message from the Center's students which reads, "What we do now matters forever. It's not a game."

The video also shows the TASCA highlighting the center's memorial Peace Garden, the bronze statue of the late rap icon Tupac (2Pac) and the "One Brick at a Time" wall (in which individuals or corporations can sponsor memorial bricks engraved with their own message).

Released by Amaru Entertainment, The Rose, Vol. 2 features 15 fresh tracks from an array of genres, including rap, hip-hop, soul and R&B offerings. The guest artists on The Rose, Vol. 2 include hip-hop and rap artist Ludacris, Lyfe Jennings, Bone Thugs -N- Harmony, The Outlawz, Memphis Bleek, and Talib Kweli, among others.
