

Celebrate the Liberation of Assata Shakur

Written by Ida B. Wells Institute ID3096
Sunday, 29 October 2006 04:03 -

The struggle of Assata Shakur (Joanne Chesimard), godmother of late hip-hop rap icon Tupac Shakur (2Pac); continues.

Celebrate the Liberation of Assata Shakur, Carry on The Tradition of Resistance and Self-Determination.

November 2, 2006 is the 27th anniversary of the liberation of Assata Shakur from Clinton Correctional Facility in New Jersey.

It is also the anniversary of the 5,000-strong march on the UN to protest Black Genocide. On the East Coast, the day is known as Black Solidarity Day.

One year after Hurricane Katrina, we can state that "Black Genocide" is not a figment of our imagination

The liberation of Assata Shakur is not only a victory for our movement but it is a shining example of resistance and self-determination that we need to follow today.

Join the Ida B. Wells Institute and others as we remember, honor and celebrate the liberation of Assata Shakur and re-dedicate ourselves to the cause of resistance and self-determination.

[New York]

Thursday, November 2nd, 2006

6 pm

Celebrate the Liberation of Assata Shakur

Written by Ida B. Wells Institute ID3096

Sunday, 29 October 2006 04:03 -

SEIU 1199 Hall

310 West 43rd Street

(between 8th and 9th Aves.)

New York, NY

Free...donations accepted

Featuring:

Co-Hosts Susan Taylor and Mos Def

Gloria Rolando's "Eyes of the Rainbow" about Assata's life in Cuba

Assata Shakur's Birthday Card

Sign the card, receive a hand made Hands Off Assata bracelet, and contribute to a larger liberation movement for Assata Shakur...for Cuba...for us all.

[Los Angeles]

Saturday, November 4th, 2006

Celebrate the Liberation of Assata Shakur

Written by Ida B. Wells Institute ID3096

Sunday, 29 October 2006 04:03 -

at Lotus on the Nile

Wholistic Wellness Center

4307 S. Crenshaw Blvd.

(near 43rd Street/Homeland)

Free...donations accepted

7:00 pm – 9:00 p.m.

Wordz Spoken from

Queen Nzingha Ratabisha Heru

International President,

Association for the Study of Classical Afrikan Civilizations

and

Talibah Shakir

Celebrate the Liberation of Assata Shakur

Written by Ida B. Wells Institute ID3096

Sunday, 29 October 2006 04:03 -

Member, Los Angeles Black Panther Party

under the leadership of Bunchy Carter

Spoken Wordz from

Makeda Kumasi

and

Sadiki Bakari / Nappy Tongue Vanguard

Sponsored by

The Ida B. Wells Institute

323-314-4937 • 404-353-2727

idabwellsinstitute@gmail.com

Supported/Endorsed by:

Association for the Study of Classical Afrikan Civilizations (ASCAC) • Asians for Mumia and Jericho • Aztlan Media Kollektive • Black August L.A. • Capoeira Angola Center of Los Angeles •

Celebrate the Liberation of Assata Shakur

Written by Ida B. Wells Institute ID3096

Sunday, 29 October 2006 04:03 -

Divine Forces Radio • Eso Won Books • Freedom Now Radio • FTP Movement • Human Rights Advocacy • Ile Iwosan Orunmila Mimo Temple • Imix Books • Jericho Amnesty Movement • Knew Planet • KRST Unity • Los Angeles Anarchist Black Cross Federation (LA-ABCF) • LIBRadio • Lotus on the Nile • Nappy Tongue Vanguard • National Committee to Free the Cuban Five • Prisoners of Conscience Committee • POCC: Block Report Radio • Sista Cipher.

For more information please visit and support:

www.happybirthdayassata.org

Email hoacampaign@yahoo.com

(866) 244-4708

Media Justice | Advocacy | Training

<http://idabwellsinstitute.blogspot.com>

323-314-4937 • 404-353-2727

Additional information on Sister Assata Shakur

Our Sister, Comrade, Mother, Freedom fighter, Maroon, Peace-loving Revolutionary Grandmother turns 60 in 2007. The Hands Off Assata (HOA) campaign is launching a national mobilization to wish Assata a happy 60th birthday while calling for an immediate end to repressive targeting of Assata, communities of color, poor communities and Cuba.

Celebrate the Liberation of Assata Shakur

Written by Ida B. Wells Institute ID3096

Sunday, 29 October 2006 04:03 -

For over twenty years, Assata has been living in exile (in accordance with international law) in Cuba. Yet the U.S. Federal and the State of New Jersey have consistently violated legal protocols, persecuting Assata for her political beliefs, her political work, and the example that she provides to those who believe in everyone's right to struggle for social justice. Thus, we take this time—on her 60th birthday—to wish her the sanctuary and freedom that she deserves.

The Hands Off Assata (HOA) campaign are gathering signatures, educating the public, securing support for Assata, as we strengthen a campaign to call forth a pardon—withdrawing all charges and convictions—for Assata Shakur.

The Hands Off Assata (HOA) campaign are traveling city-to-city to wish Assata peace, justice, and the freedom she deserves and has fought for so long.

A large, beautiful, birthday card, designed by notable artist, John Rozelle, has been created to travel around the country to collect signatures and well-wishes from communities, activists, students, artists, actors, workers, mothers, fathers, brothers, sisters... humans who love and will work for freedom.

Events are scheduled in the following cities. Please go to <http://www.happybirthdayassata.org> for information on individual city venue updates:

New York: KICKOFF Nov, 2, 2006

Bahia, Brazil Nov, 2, 2006

Los Angeles TBD

Atlanta Dec. 10, 2006

Celebrate the Liberation of Assata Shakur

Written by Ida B. Wells Institute ID3096
Sunday, 29 October 2006 04:03 -

Detroit Feb./2007

Chicago March/2007

Boston March/2007

San Francisco Bay Area April/2007

Philadelphia TBD

Web sites to also visit and support –

<http://assatashakur.org>

<http://assatashakur.org/forum>

<http://www.thedrum.org>

<http://idabwellsinstitute.blogspot.com>

A quality list of links can be found at

<http://assatashakur.org/links.htm>

Celebrate the Liberation of Assata Shakur

Written by Ida B. Wells Institute ID3096

Sunday, 29 October 2006 04:03 -
